

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL TRANSFER PROGRAM APPLICATION

This application may be completed at any time during the school year, however, the deadline for enrollment in the program is May 15th. The application will be reviewed by the requested receiving school. If an opening is available, the district will then contact you directly.

If more students apply than there are slots available, a lottery will be conducted.

Please be advised that transportation IS NOT provided for students participating in this program.

If you are not selected in the lottery and an opening does not come available during the school year, you must complete a separate application for any other academic year for which you would like to be considered to participate in the elementary school transfer program.
